ADMISSION FORM

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

Dawat-e-Islami is a global movement peacefully promoting the teachings of the Glorious Quraan & the Blessed Sunnah. It is grounded in Sunni Saheehul Aqeedah beliefs, on the principles of the great Mujaddid (Reviver) of Islam, Aalaa Hazrat Imam Ahmad Raza Khan of Bareilly Shareef.

Jamia Tul Madina is an Islamic University and an Educational department of Dawat-e-Islami which caters for Higher Islamic Learning. We provide world class education by qualified and experienced Aalimahs.

Some of the subjects taught at Jamia Tul Madina include:

Quraan, Tafseer (Exegesis), Hadees, Usool (Principles), Fiqh (Jurisprudence), Aqeedah, Arabic, Logic, Eloquence, Sarf (Arabic Etymology & Morphology) Nahw (Arabic Syntax) etc. Madani Pearls are also part of the curriculum (i.e. students are motivated towards general good manners and Islamic social etiquettes).

Dear Respected Parents/Guardians and student.

Kindly read through the Rules & Indemnity set out by Majlis Jamia Tul Madina Department, fill out and sign below to enrol/re-enrol your child/ward for the year 2025 and submit to Jamia Tul Madina.

ONLINE JAMIA TUL MADINA RULES

- This English medium Aalimah course of 5 years is aimed at candidates who are 14 years and above. The candidate is to know English decently along with the ability to fluently read and write Arabic.
- The academic year will be divided into two semesters, with each concluding with exams.
- The student must endeavour to arrange a strong internet connection along with back up e.g. data etc. in case of any load-shedding/power outages, in order for their class time to continue. Ensure that your device is fully charged.
- Jamia Tul Madina will be closed on official South African public holidays and on certain Islamic days like the Eidain, Eid-e-Meelaadun Nabi etc. Holidays will also be given after the two semester exams.
- Jamia classes are 8am - 1pm (Monday to Thursday) & 8am to 11:30am on Fridays. If there is a genuine reason to join late, then a student will be permitted to join by 8:15am at the latest.
NB. The student should be ready for classes 12 minutes before classes commence.
- A minimum of 80% attendance is mandatory, failing which, this will impact the student negatively.
- The student must be regular and on time for the online classes.
Absenteeism must be communicated daily with the Principal and a letter/Doctor's Certificate must be sent to the Principal. Not attending the online classes consistently, especially without any valid reason, will result in a disciplinary action.
Those who join late, especially on a constant basis, must provide genuine reasons for doing so, failing which there could be a disciplinary review.
- Cyber bullying or any kind of abuse, bad behaviour or disrespect against any student or teacher/management will not be tolerated, defaulters will face disciplinary actions or possible dismissal depending on the nature of the offence.
- Strictly note that smoking cigarettes etc./vaping/e-pods/air-pops/ drug or alcohol abuse of any kind, theft or any criminal activity are serious offences that could lead to dismissal, especially if done during classes.
- All relevant books are based on Sunni Saheehul Aqeedah for the various subjects, hard copies are available from Jamia Tul Madina for a nominal fee (including courier fees). PDF books are available, upon request.
NB. Books would only be released once the payment is completed.
- All students must dress neatly/modestly according to the uniform of Jamia Tul Madina i.e. black cloak and green burqa for the duration of the online classes.
- UnIslamic haircuts, long nails, cutex, nail polish etc. are not permitted.
- Any behaviour or ideology that contradicts the Sharee'ah and is against any doctrine of the Ahlus Sunnah Wal Jamaa'ah; against the teachings of Aalaa Hazrat Imam Ahmad Raza Khan or defaming Dawat-e-Islami in any form will come under strict disciplinary review with possible dismissal, depending on the type of the offence.
- Cheating in exams/tests will result in disciplinary action.
- No eating or snacking during class time.
- Avoid distractions e.g. devices, noises, designate a noise-free study space for yourself.
- Keep notebooks to take down notes or Madani Pearls of advices.
- Keep mics on mute, unless requested to unmute. Raise your hand online for attention.
- Students who are found defaulting may receive verbal or written warnings, upon consultation with the relevant authorities, dismissal may be considered depending on the violations. Dismissal without a warning will be initiated on serious offences as per the discretion of management.
- For exams, the student must make arrangements to write the exams at a Dawat-e-Islami Centre as decided upon by Jamia Tul Madina, with a female invigilator who is authorized by Jamia Tul Madina. In the event of a Dawat-e-Islami Centre being unavailable, Jamia Tul Madina may revert to special online exams.
- The student's camera should be on for the duration of classes, whilst strictly ensuring that no menfolk are able to see their screen nor hear the voice of the Educators, for this purpose, earphones are to be used.

NB. We charge a nominal fee of R200-00 per month, you are encouraged to also donate towards our Islamic activities.

It is vitally important to track the progress of your child/ward including attending any online parent meetings by mothers or a senior female member.
